LIVING HERITAGE MUSEUM
NATIONAL QUILT SHOW: ONCE UPON A TIME
2010 Entry Requirements

Athens, Tennessee's Living Heritage Museum is excited to announce this year's theme for its annual quilt competition. In keeping with the museum's historical perspective, "ONCE UPON A TIME" has been chosen as the theme for both the traditional and art quilt categories. All interpretations of the theme are welcomed. Cash prizes will be awarded in both categories.

The traditional category will be judged according to the use of time honored techniques and designs. The art quilt category is open to those who like to expand upon traditional quilting and the use of multiple techniques and mediums is encouraged.

Eligibility: This exhibition is a national opportunity open to all quilt makers within the United States. All quilts must be original works executed by the artist. This is a juried exhibition focusing on traditional and art quilts. Quilts must have three (3) layers (top, batting, and backing). No commercial patterns or copies of previous works should be used. Quilts may be constructed by individuals, teams or groups. All persons involved in making the entry must be listed on the entry form.

Size: Size restrictions for the art quilt category are nothing smaller than 15'x15' and nothing larger than 60"x60." Size restrictions for the standard quilt category applies to bed size quilts, crib, twin, standard and full size comforter or quilt.

Installation Requirements: All accepted quilts must include a minimum 4-inch sleeve sewn to the width of the quilt. No rigid frames, rods or other mounting devices will be accepted.

Guidelines for Entries: Each artist may enter up to two quilts to this exhibition. Deadline for submission is by 5 pm Eastern Time Wednesday, June 30, 2010. Please include two photographs for each entry, one full view image of the completed quilt and one detail image with entry form. Digital entries should be standard JPEG (.jpg) format on disk and should be no more than 800 KB in size. Images should be roughly 600 x 900 pixels. Please label your CD with your name and image file names. No Power Point presentations or slides will be accepted. Please also include a printout of the images submitted. Print your name, address, telephone number and the name of the quilt on each printout for each entry. Late entries will not be accepted. A separate entry form must be completed for each item entered. Please submit a statement about your work (35 words or less) with your each form.

Fees: Include a $20.00 application fee (up to two quilts) with application. Make checks payable to Living Heritage Museum. To be accepted for the LHM 2010 National Heritage Quilt Show, all entries must be received by 5 pm Eastern Time Wednesday, June 30, 2010.

Judging: All decisions of the jurors and judges are final. The quilt show will be professionally judged before the start of the show.

Notification of Acceptance: The Living Heritage Museum (LHM) will contact artists by Monday, August 9, 2010 by mail. Please include a SASE for status of entry. Your accepted piece must be available for judging and display from August 27-October 29, 2010. No quilt will be taken down before the end of the show and will not be available for pickup until November 3, 2010.

Installation: The Living Heritage Museum will take responsibility for the installation of the work.

Liability: Insurance coverage during delivery/shipping to and from the Living Heritage Museum is your responsibility. Please remember to insure your quilts with your carrier for shipping your piece to the Museum and on your return pre-paid shipper. The Living Heritage Museum carries liability insurance for all items on display in the Museum. However, in the event of a loss or claim to your quilt that is in our show, you, the owner, must be able to prove the value placed on that item. This may be done in several ways: 1) with a certified appraisal of the item written by a certified appraiser, 2) with a bill of sale or other proof of purchase of the item 3) with a complete list of the value of all materials that have been used in the completion of the item.

Delivery: Accepted work must be delivered to the LHM by 5 pm Eastern Time Friday, August 27, 2010. Work must be ready to hang. Artist is responsible for all shipping costs and shipping containers to and from the Museum. Include in your original shipment a separate self-addressed mailing label and pre-paid postage label for the return of your quilt(s). We do not accept checks for return postage. Please mark the preferred method of quilt return on your entry form.
